

LICHTMOND

Days of Eternity

Golden sun and golden seas
Well known but foreign still
And worlds that dream until they fill
Days of Eternity

It's standing still that bends the worlds
And calls the breathless names
To restless times of anguish
And never ending games

Poem: Gabi Koppehele

I see the light in your eyes
You're reaching out for the skies
For every generation
On Days of Eternity

The world is calling your name
Your pride igniting the flame
United inspiration
On Days of Eternity
